

CCRCs: A Senior Living Option for You

What are you looking for in your retirement? Are you looking to volunteer more or spend quality time with family? Perhaps, the most important question you'll ask yourself is - where will I live?

If you're looking for senior living options that offer both a great life now and security for your future, then a continuing care retirement community (CCRC) could be the right choice. At The Oaks at Denville, a Springpoint CCRC, we offer the ability to live your best life right now while feeling confident that your future needs will be well taken care of. You have all that you need to live the vibrant, active lifestyle you deserve.

What is a CCRC?

A CCRC is a type of senior living community with a variety of levels of care offered at the same convenient location. At The Oaks, we offer independent living, assisted living, skilled nursing and rehabilitation. With all senior living options in the same community, you are conveniently able to transition to different levels of care should the need arise. So, while you're enjoying the retirement lifestyle of your dreams, you'll also benefit from security and peace of mind for the future. You are assured high-quality healthcare on site, if it's ever needed.

Our CCRC offers an all-inclusive senior living lifestyle. With maintenance-free living and a full continuum of care, your needs will be met now and in the future. Along with open floor and one-and two-bedroom apartment plans, you'll have access to onsite activities and amenities designed to help you live the most enriched and fulfilled life possible. And, all expenses are conveniently covered in the monthly fee. Your fee includes:

- Spacious living options
- Restaurant-style dining
- Housekeeping services
- Complete maintenance, inside and out
- Concierge services
- Transportation to grocery stores, shops and more
- 24-hour security
